

Statement from Associated General Contractors of America Vice President for Congressional Relations & Infrastructure Advancement Sean O’Neill

“The Associated General Contractors of America welcomes the addition of the ‘Bridge Investment Act’ into the conversation of how we can address the thousands of structurally-deficient bridges in communities throughout the country and we look forward to working with Congress and the Administration on an infrastructure package that provides new and additional resources to meet our nation’s transportation infrastructure needs,” said Sean O’Neill, Vice President for Congressional Relations & Infrastructure Advancement, Associated General Contractors of America.
