

Immigration Case Assistance (USCIS, Department of State)

Senator Brown's office assists with immigration-related case inquiries involving USCIS and/or the US Department of State. In order for our office to look into the issue on your behalf, we must receive a completed Request for Assistance (RFA) form. This form allows our office to contact the respective federal agency on your behalf, and get started on your case. The form is three pages long. All pages of the form must be completed in their entirety. If a question does not apply to your specific case, please put "n/a" on that line.

Please be aware that the agency only allows for one signature per each individual RFA. Additionally, if you wish to inquire about multiple pending cases, we will need one privacy release form per petition receipt number.

If You Are the Petitioner of a Pending Immigration Benefit:

The petitioner may complete the RFA by hand if the beneficiary of the application is overseas. If you are the petitioner, you may sign the separate privacy release form designated specifically for the petitioner.

- If you filed a Form I-730, Follow-to-Join Refugee/Asylee application on behalf of a family member, the beneficiary's signature may be required. If possible, please have your family member fill out the RFA designated for the beneficiary. Please contact your respective caseworker if you are unable to receive their signature.

If You Are the Beneficiary of a Pending Immigration Benefit:

The beneficiary may complete the RFA by hand if they have a pending adjustment of status case, i.e. I-465, N-400, I-90, N-565, etc. If you are the beneficiary, you may sign the separate privacy release form designated specifically for the beneficiary.

- If your pending petition is employment-based, your employer must complete the privacy release form as the petitioner and include your information as the beneficiary.
- If you are the primary petitioner, but have derivative beneficiaries who are linked to your pending petition who would like to inquire about the status of their case, the derivative beneficiary must complete the RFA.

Electronic signatures may lead to rejection of your RFA by the reviewing agency
